You want your community to be vibrant, your friends to be nearby and your surroundings to feel warmly, comfortably like home.

Medalion
Retirement Community

centuraseniors.org/medalion

You want meals that are delicious, good friends to share a great conversation and someone else to be left with the dishes.

You want the right amount of independence, and just the right touches of care. You want the peace of mind that friends are close by to check in and say “hello.”

Medalion Retirement Community feels like home the minute you step through our door. You'll notice an atmosphere of friendship everywhere you turn. The grounds are comfortable and welcoming. It is informal, cheerful, and relaxing here and even in a short visit you'll feel the extraordinary care and compassion that surrounds you.

We are conveniently located in central Colorado Springs, and we offer a variety of lifestyle choices carefully designed to meet a spectrum of needs and wishes, from Independent Living to Assisted Living and Skilled Nursing. Our residents enjoy the best of two worlds; the privacy and independence of their own apartment home, plus the fellowship and fun that comes from sharing good times and activities with neighbors and friends.

We offer four living options:

- Independent Living
- Independent Plus Services
- Assisted Living
- Skilled Nursing

You want to be able to pick
and choose the activities that fit your tastes, your lifestyle or your mood.

- We provide cable television and all utilities except telephone.
- We have a 24-hour emergency call response system in each apartment.
- Join friends for a game of pool, a swim in our outdoor pool, or stroll around our garden areas and walking paths.
- Take part in all kinds of activities including entertainment, trips and cultural events, plus a computer lab, computer classes and an exercise room.
- Enjoy our flat laundry service and housekeeping services.
- Attend our interdenominational services provided by our staff chaplain.
